Transformation Strategies with Main Street America Stakeholder Meetings:

June 9th 3:00 (property owners)

June 9th 4:00 (merchants)

As you may have heard, Kendallville will be visited by both state and national Main Street representatives on June 9th and 10th to discuss and develop our Transformational Strategies for downtown

The importance of these meetings cannot be overstated, as the Transformational Strategies effort will serve as the foundation for future revitalization in the downtown area. This begins with a solid understanding of local and regional market data, as well as sustained and inclusive community engagement.

Please mark your calendars for the important dates/times listed above so that you can attend or send a representative on your behalf.

Meetings will be held in the Police Training Room at City Hall.
